Join us at noon at Jack's Café on Wednesday, Oct. 19, for our monthly luncheon and networking!
Brenda Martinez of Connections will be the guest speaker.
NOTE:
Costs are rising, and we regrettfully must start charging $12 for the lunch.

Sales Tax figures

Tracking sales tax allocations to the city shows just what an impact your business — and shopping in Floresville — has on our city. Watch each month as we report the latest disbursement, which reflects sales made two months prior. For instance, sales in January are reported to the state comptroller in February, and allocated to the city in March.

		2011	2010
March	(Jan. sales)	127,305.61	113,288.51
April	(Feb. sales)	105,253.83	119,406.60
May	(Mar. sales)	178,984.49	151,659.95
June	(Apr. sales)	157,853.30	129,621.62
July	(May sales)	166,252.16	135,446.17
August	(June sales)	213,466.69	163,395.03
September	(July sales)	135,129.99	137,536.94

Summer Country Music Series comes to an end! The last event was Sept. 18.

Charlie Montague performs while his band member uses the speaker as a drum.

This young man really enjoyed the pulled pork sandwiches!

Members of the Court of Mystical, Magical Universe visit with Charlie Montague.
